
FER 195, Figure 3

Ground cracks formed in 1987 in Wolf Valley from Leighton and Associates (1987) and Geowest (1987) shown in red. Geomorphology suggestive of Holocene faulting shown in green.

Trace of fault or geomorphic feature; solid line where well-located, dashed where approximate, dotted where concealed. Scarps shown by tick marks on down-dropped side. t indicates tonal lineament.

Trench location by Leighton and Associates (1987) or Geowest (1987) showing age of youngest offset unit: H- Holocene, L- Late Pleistocene, NF- fault not found scale 1:12,000

0 .5 mile

0 .5 kilometer

195-2